(c) whether the existing Child Labour laws are adequate to deal with the situation; and

(d) if not, the other steps Government propose to take to made the Child Labour laws more effective ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI MUNI LALL): (a) to (d) UN Committee on Convention on the Rights of the Child met in Geneva in January, 2000. In its final observations the Committee noted the amendments to the Schedule to the Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986. It expressed concern at the large number of working children and against non enforcement of minimum age standards for employment. It recommended ratification of ILO Convention NO. 138 concerning the minimum age for admission to employment and No. 182 concerning prohibition and immediate action for the elimination of the worst forms of Child Labour.

The Central Government is responsible for enforcement of the Child Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Act, 1986 in railways, major ports, mines, oil fields and establishments under the control of the Central Government. In all other cases, State/UT Governments are responsible for enforcement of the Act. Employers found employing children in occupations and processes prohibited under the Act are prosecuted under the provisions of the Act. State/ UT Governments furnish informations to the Central Government on implementation of the provisions of the Act.

Government has already initiated steps towards ratification of ILO Convention Nos. 138 and 182.
